Market-leading enterprise
legal management

Manage matters with greater ease – and optimize value from outside firms

Legal departments are under intense pressure to reduce company legal costs while striving to meet higher expectations for forecasting and compliance. TyMetrix provides a complete response to these pressures, simplifying day-to-day document management and allowing you to analyze data in ways that squeeze greater value and results from every litigation dollar

Market-leading enterprise legal management – TyMetrix 360°

The TyMetrix 360° enterprise legal management platform is the most advanced on the market, letting corporate legal clients achieve business process improvements while enhancing their ability to handle spending levels, budgets and forecasts throughout a matter's lifecycle.

Beyond reducing legal expenses through our proven process, many TyMetrix 360° clients gain dramatic savings through more informed legal strategies, streamlined workflows, and more effective collaboration with outside counsel. With TyMetrix, you can value firms' performance based on their history with your company and subjective scorecard ratings, so you can engage the best firm for each matter, in the right place, at an appropriate fee.

See the bigger picture, and make better decisions – Legal Analytics TyMetrix Legal Analytics transforms industry data into valuable business intelligence that lets corporate legal departments make better decisions and achieve greater value for their legal spend. Our analytics let you compare law firms, best practices, and outcome patterns, so you can identify, engage and manage outside counsel with confidence.

The powerhouse behind our analytics is LegalVIEW®, the industry's most robust database, with performance data provided to us voluntarily by more than 17,000 law firms worldwide. LegalVIEW® helps our clients gain powerful insights – across industry and geography, by duration and task, from staff allocation to years of experience, hours, rates and fees. Drawing on this data through our web-based benchmarking tool, MatterAnalyzer, clients can accurately price, plan and budget legal services on their way to achieving ever-increasing value for their financial outlay.

TyMetrix helps clients make the evolutionary leap from simple spend management to legal performance management through our two business groups

Matter management, e-billing, workflow, collaboration, reporting—every aspect of your legal operations can be captured, controlled, and analyzed when it is managed through a single, unified platform.
